Immigrants Arriving at Ellis Island.
The Raw Material With Which Our New York Harbor Missionary, Rev. Paul Land, Deals.

The Population of the World.

Dr. Zeller, Director in the Statistical Bureau in Stuttgart, estimates that of the 1,544,510,000 people in the world 534,940,000 are Christian, 175,290,000 are Mohammedan, 10,860,000 are Jews, and 822,420,000 are heathen. Of these 300,000,000 are Confucians, 214,000,000 are Brahmans, and 121,000,000 Buddhists, with other bodies of lesser numbers. In other words out of every 1000 of the earth's inhabitants 346 are Christian, 114 Mohammedan, 7 are Israelite, and 533 are of other religions. In 1885, in a table estimating the population of the world at 1,461,285,500, the number of Christians are put at 430,284,500; of Jews at 7,000,000; Mohammedans at 230,000,000; and of heathen 794,000,000.

The United States has 37 foreign missionary societies, giving $10,712,345 annually, and sending out 5117 missionaries.

The Incoming Millions.

Thanks to the rigid inspection methods adopted by our government, the standard—moral, intellectual and physical—of the immigrant hosts is being steadily forced upward. A moment's study of the faces in the illustration on this page, and, especially, of those in the illustration, given a few pages farther on, entitled "Our Immigrant Guests", will prove reassuring on this score. We can well afford to welcome most hospitably the sturdy, self-reliant immigrants now offering themselves as candidates for citizenship in this great country. And, further, we may rest assured that any assistance and sympathy given them, through our Harbor Missionary at Ellis Island, will yield disproportionately large results, spiritually and otherwise. Let us welcome the immigrant with the greetings of a Christian brother, and aid him in adjusting himself to the strange conditions of his new home.

ONE ORDAINED MINISTER

Our 116 home mission congregations afford a striking illustration of large returns for money expended. They gave about $16,000 to benevolence last year.

Ministers in United States and in Japan.

There is one Christian minister for every 500 of the population of the United States, and there is but one in every 114,000 in Japan, one in 165,000 in India, one in 220,000 in Africa, and one in 437,000 in China. There are 405,297 temples and shrines in Japan, and only 1635 churches, chapels and preaching-places; nearly 250 times as many places to worship myriad gods as to worship the living God.

The Composing Room of the Central Publishing House Where the Year Book Is Put Into Type.

The Central Publishing House.

The glimpse of the composing room given above, affords some idea of the extent of the large plant of our Publishing House. The three linotype presses, by which most of the type-setting of the establishment is done, represent an outlay of about $11,000, and this is merely one corner, of one room, of the Publishing House.

The House was established in 1858. As indicative of its humble beginning, it is interesting to recall that in 1860 the report of sales, for the year, was $140.40, with a treasury balance of $20.40. Last year's cash business was $63,567.49. Forty persons compose the force and six presses are required for the printing. Seven periodicals are published, and an extensive job business is done. Four books were published last year. Rev. Aug. Becker has been the efficient general manager for a quarter of a century. The profits of the business are devoted to the missionary work of our Church.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement.

More and more are the men of our Reformed Church — in fact of all denominations—forging to the front. The one aim of The Laymen's Missionary Movement is to develop and accelerate this tendency. It is meeting with splendid success. Our own denominational convention at Harrisburg, Pa., last year exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its consecrated promoters.

A Family of Ministers.

General Missionary Data.

The amount raised and reported by the Foreign Mission Societies and Boards of the United States amounted, for 1908, to $9,147,364. There are thirty-seven different societies, having in the field 2,063 men and 3,054 women missionaries, besides 27,319 accredited native helpers. In the districts covered by these societies, there are 6,745 churches, with 672,108 communicant members and a still larger untabulated number of natives in schools and under instruction. The contributions of the natives, reported from these various fields, reached, for the year, the magnificent total of $1,564,981, or more than one-sixth as much as was contributed at home. The offerings of the Protestant Churches of the entire world amounted to $22,846,465.00 (1900, $15,479,575.00). The native churches gave $4,843,814.00 (1900 $1,833,961.00). There were 8951 male and 10,895 female missionaries in the field, a total of almost 20,000 (1900, 16,218). They were assisted in their work by 4999 ordained native pastors and 93,956 other helpers (1900, 62,366). The number of stations was 41,563 (1900, 25,108). The total of native Christians was 4,285,199 (1900, 3,556,140), of whom 164,674 had been added during the year (1900, 94,562). There were 28,164 day schools with 1,290,582 pupils (1900, 20,196 and 1,035,724).

The Women's Societies.

The Women's Missionary Societies of the Reformed Church have become a force to be reckoned with. Through their influence the long desired consolidation of the various missionary publications of the Church has been brought about, the first number of the new magazine appearing for the first time in January 1910. As indicating how much their work counts for in one of many lines, it is interesting to notice that the societies of the Ohio Synod raised $4011.95 last year. The Women's societies have been steadily increasing in strength and numbers, and the attendance at, and interest in their conventions, have shown a very encouraging growth. Their wise and aggressive efforts promise much for our mission work at home and abroad.

Medical Examination of Immigrants at Ellis Island.

Our Home Mission Work.

The Superintendents are:

Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, General Superintendent.

Rev. A. C. Whitmer, Assistant Supt. (Eastern and Potomac Synods).

Rev. D. A. Souders, D. D., Assistant Supt. (Pittsburg and Ohio Synods).

Rev. J. C. Horning, Assistant Supt. (Interior and Ohio Synods).

The Home Mission field covers practically the entire United States and a portion of Canada. The most eastern Mission is located in Boston, Mass., and the most western at Portland, Oregon. There are at present 192 Missions of which 71 are under the two German Boards, the Eastern and the Western, and the remaining 120 are under the General Board. The total membership in these Missions is 22,530. The Board owns property aggregating $780,000. It has invested in lots and in church buildings $252,000.

The Home Mission work consists of two parts, namely: the support of the missionaries, and church building. The money that is given for the missionaries is an outright gift, but money for building churches is a loan, and has to be returned to the treasurer in due course of time. A Church-building Fund is $500 or more, which is given by an individual, a congregation, a society, a classis, or by any other party. There are 230 of these funds at the present time amounting to more than $130,000.

There are twelve Missions among the Hungarians, and one among the Bohemians. These people deserve the care and attention of our Church because many of them belonged to the Reformed Church in their native land. We have also seven Hungarian students for the ministry in three of our institutions who are supported by money contributed for this purpose.

Home Missionary Day has come to be an established institution. The second Sunday of November is the day set apart for this object. Special missionary services are held by congregations and Sunday-schools. The offerings made are devoted to some specially designated mission churches. Thus far Grace Church, Chicago; St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Mo.; Christ Church, Pittsburg and Trinity Church, Lewistown, Pa. have been the beneficiaries of the Home Mission Day giving. It is hoped that the amount raised next November (1910) will far surpass that of any previous Home Mission Day. $30,000, $40,000, $50,000, raised on this day by all of our 300,000 members rallying to the effort, would mean a tremendous uplift for our Home Mission work throughout the land.

The Japanese in America.

In 1866 there were only seven Japanese in this country. Most of those who are now here have arrived since 1900. They are among the best of our late immigrants. One out of every eight is a skilled laborer. Sixty-three out of each 100 Japanese are farmers and farm laborers. In 1906 only 84 Japanese were excluded because of liability to become a public charge. Ninety-eight per cent of the Japanese immigrants are between ages of 14 and 44, while European immigration is from one-tenth to one-third infant or aged. Per capita they are putting far more money into missions in this country than we are. If we have a mission to the Japanese across the sea, do we not owe them some attention when they come to our shores and live before our very doors? There are close on to 100,000 Japanese in the United States and Hawaii.

The World's Sunday School Statistics.

There are 46,399 Sunday-schools in Great Britain and Ireland, with 8,134,716 members, while in the rest of Europe there are 27,698 schools with 1,997,900 members. In Asia and Africa 6,124 schools, 263,978 members. In the United States, 151,476 schools, 13,732,192 members. In Canada, 9,703 schools, 791,023 members. In the remainder of North America, 1,856 schools, 165,110 members. In South America, 350 schools, 153,000 members. In Oceanica, 9,372 schools, 723,363 members. Thus the grand totals for the world are 252,972 schools and 25,961,291 members.

Our General Sunday School Work.

Everyone recognizes the importance of the work done in the Sunday-school. It is not necessary to show that the successful and spiritual Sunday-school must have the right officers and teachers and careful oversight on the part of the pastor and consistory. All recognize the important work they do, but how few stop to think that the individual Sunday-school is dependent for its existence and improvement upon other Sunday-schools, and especially upon the help rendered by the Church at large.

The school is an educational institution. It must have its lesson helps, text books, maps and other material. New plans and methods must be constantly used to keep alive the interest of the Sunday-school. Printed matter is needed for special days, for training and benevolence, the missionary spirit and the proper church life.

These things the individual school itself cannot furnish. The Church at large does this for all the schools through the Sunday-school Board of the Reformed Church. What the Department of Public Education is to the United States government or the Department of Public Instruction is to the Public School System of the State, that the Sunday School Board is to the Sunday-schools of the denomination. It aids pastors and Sunday-school workers to do better work. It is a great publishing house. It stimulates the benevolent spirit, suggests ways and means by which to increase the Sunday-school membership and to secure the co-operation of the home. It acts as a bureau of information, and exchange of methods. It undertakes missionary work. This is done, not only by the employment of Sunday-school missionaries to start new schools, but chiefly by aid extended to new, weak, and destitute schools. It helps mission schools to bring missions to speedy self-support. It distributes literature through field workers or colporteurs, and furnishes literature to our Hungarian brethren.

Our General Sunday School Work.

The work of the Sunday School Board is therefore of great help to every individual school. It is the pioneer and lays the foundation for missions, home and foreign, colleges, theological seminaries and the more rapid growth of the entire Reformed Church. Its educational and missionary work depend for its support,

First, upon the annual offerings of schools and congregations on Children's Day. The Sunday School Board asks every school to make a free will offering for the Sunday-school cause.

Second, upon gifts of individuals, annuity bonds and bequests. If you wish to help the children, remember the Sunday School Board in your will.

The main office of the Board is in the Reformed Church Building, 15th and Race Sts.,

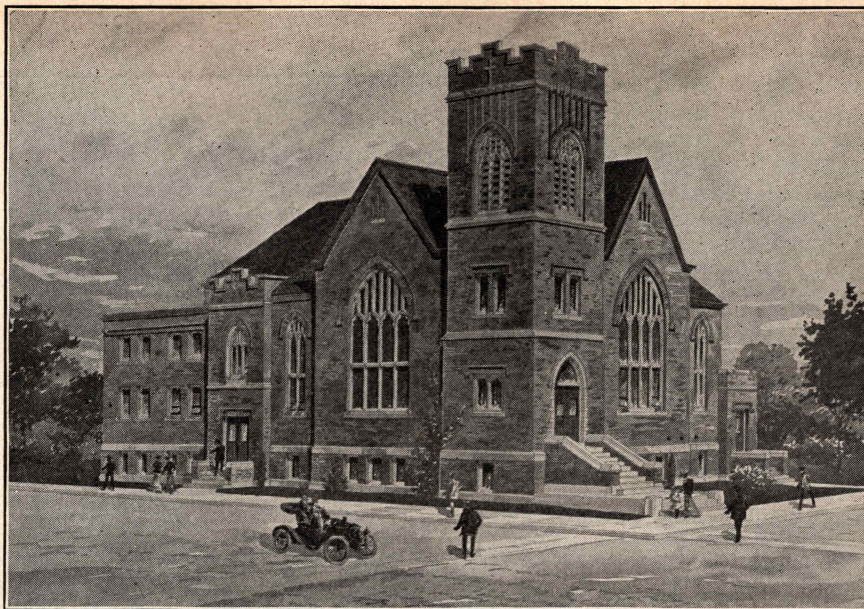

Rev. John C. Horning, Asst. Supt. of Home Missions.

Philadelphia, Pa. The Central Publishing House, Cleveland, Ohio, acts as the Western agent. Printed reports of the Board and fuller information can be secured by addressing the Secretary of the Board, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D.

The $70,000 Thank-Offering.

Last year was signalized by the completion of the $70,000 fund for foreign missions. Its final rounding out, after strenuous effort on the part of Secretary Bartholomew and his co-workers, was announced in September, and the announcement was hailed with joy throughout the Church.

Fourth Reformed Church, Cleveland, O., ($28,000) Rev. Adolph Krampe.

Christian Endeavor Data.

(From Secretary Shaw's Report.)

At the Seattle Convention it was my privilege to report a total enrollment of 69,138 societies, with a membership of 3,456,900. This great host has been still further increased by the addition of 2,355 societies, with a membership of 94,200, making our present net enrollment 71,493 societies, with 3,551,100 members.

Practically all the evangelical denominations are represented in this world-wide fellowship. The Presbyterians hold first place, with 10,198 societies. Next come the Disciples, with 7,148 societies. The Congregationalists are third, with 6,454 societies. Next come the Baptists, with 3,497 societies.

Last year the United Brethren Young People's Union at its national convention voted to come into our denominational fellowship as the United Brethren Christian Endeavor Union.

Christian Endeavor does not legislate for the local societies; we do not levy taxes or assessments; we exercise no authority; we stand for no dead level of uniformity; we ask only for the fellowship that shall reveal to the world our essential oneness in faith, in spiritual experience, and in practical service.

The Jews.

There are 11,483,876 Jews in the world; 8,876,299 are in Europe, and 1,880,579 are in America. The Russian Empire leads by far all the nations, with 5,215,805. The United States follows second, with 1,800,000. The distribution in the United States is very incomplete. While the city of Warsaw leads Russian cities with 220,000, New York City alone includes 905,000 Jews in its population. Philadelphia has only 100,000 and Chicago 98,000. New York is veritably the New Jerusalem. It embraces one-thirteenth of the entire Jewish race. It includes in its population more Hebrews than ever before in the history of the world or elsewhere at any point on the globe have been gathered together in one city. Every fourth person in New York is a Jew. Even London has only 140,000 Jews.—The Presbyterian.

The increase in Sunday School scholars is 1,324; $9,291 more was given for benevolence and $7,590 more for congregational expenses than last year.

In 1907-8 we reported our total Reformed Church membership as 289,328. In 1908-9 it was 293,836. This means that the actual gain has been 4,508. In 1907-8 there were 1170 names on our ministerial list. In 1908-9 we reported 1230. A gain of 60. And in addition there are more students for the ministry; 235 against 221 then. The Sunday-school enrollment is close to the church enrollment.

It is 287,955. Another year should make each 300,000. In 1908-9 the sum of $459,911 was given for benevolence ($1.54 per capita). In 1907-8 it was $403,924. A gain of $55,987. The congregational giving for 1908-9 was $1,787,893. ($6.08 per cap.). These figures give evidence of the substantial progress being made along all lines of church work.

MEMORIAL.

REV. FREDERICK C. BAUMAN was born in Germany, Nov. 17, 1826, and died at Zwingie, Iowa, Sept. 25th, 1909. He came, with his parents, to this country, when ten years of age. Settling in Ohio, he was educated at Heidelberg College and Seminary. In 1853 he entered upon the pastorate at Zwingie, Iowa, continuing in that work until his death—56 years and 5 months. He suffered from the privations of the pioneer pastor during the earlier years. His influence for good was felt throughout the state. He left a wife and nine children, two of whom are Reformed ministers.

REV. BENJAMIN BAUSMAN, D. D., LL. D., was born near Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 24, 1824 and died in Reading, Pa., May 8, 1909. He graduated from the Seminary at Mercersburg in 1852. He served the Lewisburg, Pa. charge from 1853 to 1858, in which year he became editor of The Reformed Church Messenger, continuing until 1861, when he became pastor at Chambersburg. He was pastor of the First Church, Reading, for nine years, and of St. Paul's for thirty-five years. He was instrumental in organizing a number of other congregations in Reading. He filled numerous important positions of trust in the Church; and was a prolific author, and contributor to the church papers.

REV. IRVING J. BOYDSTUN was born in Meridian, Miss., where his death occurred on Jan. 30th, 1909. He united with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and graduated from the college and theological department of Cumberland University. After some post graduate work in the University of Chicago, he went, as a missionary to China. Miss Mabel Martin, his promised wife, joined him after completing her course. He became a member and missionary of the Reformed Church later, and rendered faithful service until ill-health compelled his return to this country.

REV. J. B. HENRY was born near West Alexandria, O. July 6th, 1851, and died there July 31, 1909. He was a graduate of Heidelberg College, and Theological Seminary, ('77). REV. F. HULLHORST, M. D., was born in Varen-Holz, Germany, Jan. 15, 1837 and died in Omaha, Neb., April 19, 1909. Coming to this country as a young man he was married at Freeport, Ill., in 1864. He served a number of charges faithfully, his last work being at Yutan, Nebraska, where, it has been said, he did more for the betterment of the people than any other man. His death occurred in a hospital at Omaha, following an operation.
